

FIVE KILLED, MANY HURT IN BELFAST RIOT

Attacks on Police Are Quickly Followed by Reprisals on Sinn Fein.

NIP DEMONSTRATION PLOT

Double Guards Around Prison
Where MacSwiney Is Fasting Forty-sixth Day.

By United Press London Wire
London—As Lord Mayor MacSwiney, weaker than at any time heretofore, began his forty-sixth day of fasting in Brixton prison today, police claimed to have nipped a plot for a serious demonstration in his behalf.

Kelly Symington, arrested near Brixton prison, was to be arraigned today on a charge of possessing weapons and seditious literature.

The guards about Brixton prison have been augmented as a precaution against possible outbreaks by MacSwiney supporters.

MacSwiney was said to have slept well before midnight but to have been restless early this morning.

Five men—two policemen and three civilians—were killed in week-end ambushes and raids in Ireland, according to dispatches received here today.

30 Wounded Sunday

Four of the deaths occurred near Belfast where attacks on police were repaid with prompt reprisals.

The casualty list showed twenty wounded over Sunday. Five of the wounded were picked up last night in north Belfast where a riot raged for more than an hour.

There was heavy firing which drove panic-stricken pedestrians from the streets. Tram lines discontinued service and street lights went out. The darkness was stabbed by flashes as Sinn Feiners and police continued fighting.

Order was restored when two battalions of soldiers arrived and bivouacked the scene.

One policeman was killed Sunday afternoon near Bradford, county Clare, when nearly 100 armed men ambushed a patrol. Another officer was wounded while attackers appeared to be unopposed.

The killing of Constable Leonard in ambush Saturday night, was followed by reprisals in which three wounded Sinn Feiners' leaders were called from their homes near Belfast and shot to death.

Condemn Reprisals

The situation in Ireland was an absorbing topic for the British press today. With one exception there was condemnation of the bloody reprisals of the "black and tan" police. The exception was the Post which jeered "hypocritical condemnation" of the so-called reprisals against cowardly savages calling themselves the army of the Irish republic who apparently are "conceded the right to murder with impunity."

The government apparently unmoved by the comment, continued advertising today for recruits to the auxiliary constabulary.

Food controller, Imberti, arriving here from a visit to Ireland, denied the home of late Lord Mayor MacCurra had been wrecked by government forces. He said the military had raided the house to secure seditious literature. Not a shot was fired, he said, and a story that the lord mayor's widow was fired upon was a fantastic invention.

LABOR NOW READY TO GIVE UP PLANTS

Italian Cabinet Is Optimistic of Peaceable Settlement of Dispute.

(By Camillo Cianfrani)
By United Press London Wire
Rome—A general acceptance by workers in occupied factories of the agreement to withdraw from the pending enactment of a law giving labor partial control of industries, was indicated in reports here today.

The cabinet was optimistic. It was believed with the first clash absorbing most of the heat of the workers, they were ready to view the situation in a "common sense" manner.

Members of the cabinet said they were certain labor preferred to see industry on its feet again and regular wages to the uncertainty of pay under the occupation regime.

Premier Giolitti laid before the cabinet a proposal for a law to prevent carrying of arms by civilians. It was said recent events had emphasized the fact that a large majority of the population was armed.

ANOTHER BOSTON BANK RAIDED BY DEPOSITORS

By United Press Boston Wire
Boston, Mass.—The Tremont Trust company today invoked the ninety-day clause of the banking laws, which requires depositors to give that much notice before withdrawing funds following a run on the bank in which no fees were charged out to restore order among excited depositors.

Arrest Four As Suspects

By United Press London Wire
Chippewa Falls, Wis.—Four men, believed to have robbed the bank at Oshkosh, Wis., last Wednesday after the theft of safety deposit boxes from the Prairie Farm Wisconsin state bank, were arrested in the New Northern hotel here early today.

The arrest was made by Sheriff Peter Carlson and Assistant Chief of Police Arthur Gabbert, of Oshkosh and Deputy Sheriff Fred Hayes, William Topke, of Wausau, accompanied by G. L. Westcott, Wausau, insurance man, who was largely instrumental in running down the criminals. He had trailed the men by auto from a summer resort near Wausau to Chippewa Falls. Four 45 calibre Colt revolvers and a magazine revolver were found in the rooms occupied by the quartette.

Two women found with them were also arrested and the four will be taken to Oshkosh this afternoon.

Chief George T. Primm of the Appleton police department who has been working on the case, said that four men and two women were arrested at Chippewa Falls. They had considerable amount of money in their possession. It is probable the prisoners will be taken to Oshkosh tomorrow in an effort to have them identified by employees of the bank. The men made no effort to disguise themselves when they heard the infiltration.

It is believed here that the men who robbed the Oshkosh bank are also guilty of stealing an automobile from A. H. Thuermer, Appleton, at Green Bay nearly two weeks ago.

ANTI-SALOON MAN ATTACKED BY COX

Democrat Says Wheeler Is
"Mere Chattel of Republican Party."

(By Herbert W. Walker)
By United Press Leased Wire
Enroute to St. Louis, Gov. North Platte, Nebraska, James M. Cox, following a bitter denunciation at Cheyenne of Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, today began his stump invasion of Nebraska, home state of William J. Bryan.

He was scheduled to make nine speeches. Interest centered on whether he would make a reference to the position of Bryan in the campaign. His main speeches were to be made at Lincoln, Bryan's home, and at Omaha.

In his attack on Wheeler, Cox claimed the Anti-Saloon league counsel is a "mere chattel of republican headquarters." Referring to the statement of Senator Harding's secretary that the republican candidate still owns some Marion brewery stock which he purchased several years ago, Cox said:

"How can Mr. Wheeler explain to conscientious members of his organization his support for the presidency of the United States of a brewer who is apologizing for his holdings?"

In his speech here today, Cox appealed to the party which people "for the party which their forefathers may have voted and to vote for our sharing in the only practical way that has been suggested to end war."

A letter, written on the stationery of a fashionable Los Angeles hotel, gave the name of the man and his nurse wife and said the man killed Denton. The letter was unsigned.

The letter said the nurse was known to Mrs. R. C. Deane, of Denver, former housekeeper for Denton.

Police believed today that Denton had been strangled to death. A small piece of raw, beating marks that indicated that it had been used to strangle the man, was found in the mystery tomb in the basement of the house where Denton's decomposed body was found last Thursday.

The Franco-Belgian agreement announced a short time ago, provided that in case of an attack on either country, the other would go to its aid. # NO GAMBLING IN OLD LEAGUE, HEYDLER SAYS

National League Head Tells Why Three Players Were Banished From Game.

MANY WITNESSES CALLED

Investigation of Baseball Pools to Be Taken Up by Government.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Crookedness in National league baseball games has been eliminated, in opinion of John Heydler, president, here to testify before the grand jury investigating gambling on baseball.

"Hermie Zimmerman, Hal Chase, Lee Magee were thrown out of National league because of gambling," Heydler said.

Although it had been generally known that Zimmerman, Chase and Magee were banished because of alleged crookedness, this was the first official announcement of the fact.

"This cleaned the game in the National league and as far as I know the only scandal in the American league is connected with the 1919 world series," Heydler said.

"The action taken in the Zimmerman case scared the others who might otherwise have been inclined to play crooked baseball and they are not willing to take any chances now."

Heydler said the New York Giants club deserved a great deal of credit for the swift and decisive action taken in the cases of Chase and Zimmerman.

Heydler said he had the affidavits of Rube Benton and Charles Herzog regarding alleged gambling.

"It merely comes down to a question of one man's word against another's," Heydler said.

"However, published reports to Benton's statements differ from the affidavit which he made."

Investigate All Reports

Declaring the investigation was developing a "lot of silly allegations which beclouded the main issue," Heydler urged the grand jury to stick to the main issue of alleged crookedness in baseball.

Heydler said the National league has taken particular pains to carefully investigate every report of crookedness but found all except one false.

"If Judge McDonald and the grand jury can do anything to help baseball they will receive the approval of the entire baseball public," Heydler said.

The grand jury on meeting tonight will continue its scrutiny of the 1919 world's series in which several White Sox players were reported to have sold out to gamblers.

Call Red Leader

August Herrmann, former chairman of the national committee and president of the Cincinnati Reds, was today requested by State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne to appear next Friday.

Hoyne asked Herrmann to bring affidavits which he might have relative to the matters under investigation.

Ray Schalk, catcher for the White Sox, will appear tomorrow morning when the grand jury resumes its probe. Schalk, whose integrity has never been questioned, will be able to tell the inside story of the plot, according to reports.

Schalk has never denied fighting with two members of the White Sox clique which is alleged to have sold out to the gamblers during the 1919 world series. Reports circulated after the series, were that Schalk, angered by a play made during the game of White Sox, had been up to their case.

A subpoena also was issued for Dr. R. E. Prentiss, a Chicago dentist. Prentiss was employed by several Sox players to repair their teeth. Conversations which he is alleged to have had with them will be gone into, it was said. Another baseball probe was started by federal authorities today.

U. S. Attorney Charles F. Clyne, announced his intention of investigating baseball pools. Postal inspectors were asked to locate L. J. McDonald, Indianapolis. Clyne wants him as a witness.

McDonald is said to know the names of several men who operate pools.

Ban Johnson, president of the American league, today answered attacks by Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox. Comiskey expressed disapproval of Johnson's statement that he had heard reports the White Sox didn't dare to win the pennant this year because many of the players were in the grip of the gamblers.

"This is not the time for quibbling and side issues," said Johnson.

"The integrity of professional baseball is on trial. It is the only sane and thorough method of unraveling a mass of appalling charges."

"There was a time when authorities of the game could have controlled the gambling situation, when it was in the spawning period. Today it has grown to such proportions that the hand of a stronger and sterner power has been invoked."

"I stand squarely behind the grand jury and the authorities in the responsibility they have assumed and will enter into no further discussion of personal matters that only tend to mislead and nauseate the public."

Gompers Takes First Air Trip

COMISKEY SLAPS AT LEAGUE HEAD

Breach Between White Sox
Owner and Ban Johnson
Widened by Probe.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Complete investigation of scandal of baseball in recent years by the Cook county grand jury was indicated today with the preparation of more than 20 subpoenas for witnesses to appear before jurors when sessions are resumed here Tuesday.

The world's series of 1919 between the Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati Reds and National and American league games this year will be barred, according to Assistant State's Attorney Hartley Replegle.

That the investigation may spread to other cities was indicated by officials who said gamblers who wagered on the last world series were located throughout the country. On the theory that these gamblers may have tried to "fix" local games, it was believed investigations may be made in other major league ball cities.

Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, suspected "something" after the first game of the world series last year, he said.

Comiskey said he voiced his suspicions to President John A. Heydler of the National league. Heydler, here today as a witness, to go before the grand jury, confirmed Comiskey's statement.

Heydler said he mentioned the matter to Ban Johnson, president of the American league but that Johnson replied with a rather curt remark that made him drop the matter.

The split between Comiskey and Ban Johnson was further evidenced today.

"There's one man working on the investigation whom I did think was sincere in it, but I believe now he is using it for personal gain," said Comiskey.

"It was a terrible thing to see a story printed of crookedness on the White Sox recently, but it was worse to follow with a statement of blackmail of my players by gamblers just before they went into the series at Cleveland, a club in which this man is interested. I refer to Ban Johnson, president of our league."

Included among witnesses expected to testify tomorrow before the grand jury is an unnamed woman.

John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, is among those who have been asked to testify. He is expected here Wednesday.

CODE LIST REVEALS NAMES OF SOVIETS

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Police today searched for several men whose names were alleged to have been found on a code list in the possession of Wm. Schechman, former secretary to Nicolai Lenin, bolshevik premier, arrested in a raid here.

Schechman was a delegate from the third international to the communist labor party convention here, police said. Police claimed they found a paper containing a code which radicals used to communicate with each other. Schechman was held today though no charge has been preferred against him. Authorities expected to ask for his deportation.

PRICE SLUMP DUE TO USE OF COMMON SENSE

Necessities.

WANTS CHANGE IN TAXES

James Clews Declares Present System Constitutes Oppressive Burden.

By Harold D. Jacobs
By United Press Leased Wire
The cost of living was gaining momentum in its downward sweep today and was gathering in additional lines of commodities as it fell, according to reports gathered by the United Press.

James B. Clews, managing partner of the Wall Street banking firm of Henry Clews and company, explained that the price reductions were due to the determination of the American people to eliminate luxuries and to tightening of credits, and forecast further price cutting.

Today second-hand automobiles were reduced in Chicago from $250 to $100. Announcement of an average reduction of 25 per cent in lumber prices by the American Wholesale Lumber Dealers' association was followed by reports from various cities of slumps in all building materials.

Produce prices were falling in Rochester, New York and St. Westfield, president of the Retail Grocers' association in Chicago, predicted a general reduction in retail food prices.

The price reductions were reflected in Wall street where stocks were hammered down by a strong bear attack.

New York—The American people themselves, individuals and corporations, are bringing about the present price reductions through a determination to do without personal and business luxuries and to await lower prices before purchasing all but actual necessities, according to James Clews, managing partner of Henry Clews and company.

In other words, the country is undergoing a sudden attack of common sense," Clews said in an interview today.

The banker added that a contributing factor in bringing about a return to normal conditions, "is the determined attitude of the federal reserve authorities with regard to deflating credits which were becoming not only dangerous but a burden to the country."

"For a long time prices were bolstered to undue heights owing to the unwillingness of manufacturers to be satisfied with pre-war profits and owing to the comparative ease with which funds were obtainable. Large stocks of goods were kept on hand rather than put on the market," Clews said.

"The raising of discount rates, the making of loans only on essentials and the attitude of the average citizen in making purchases to cover absolute requirements only, have at last forced a change in the policy of lenders and consumers. The result is that lower prices are seen in almost every direction and this is something to be desired."

He said, producers and manufacturers will for a time suffer from the flow of lower prices but they should bear this cheerfully, remembering that for the last five or six years their profits have been unduly large."

Clews said the country has again been blessed with large harvests and expressed the belief that "taken with the mark down in quotations, consumers will find the farmer will still be well recompensed for his labor as prices for the general run of commodities are still abnormally high."

According to Clews, some means must be devised for relieving the burden of taxation, which is not only oppressive to corporations but to individuals. He suggested as a substitute for the excessive tax the establishment of a "sales tax," leaving a tax of possibly two per cent on every purchase in the country. He explained that the burden of taxation would thus be more evenly divided.

Financially the country is on a sound basis and the outlook is far from being disheartening, Clews concluded.

"In fact it has a very bright side now that the high cost of living is being reduced."

HEAR CHINESE REBELS HAVE STORMED CANTON

By United Press Leased Wire
Peking—The foreign ministry of the northern government today received an unconfirmed report that rebel forces had occupied Canton.

It was reported that the home leaders had been slain but there was no confirmation.

EASTERN OHIO COAL MINERS ARE ON STRIKE

By United Press Leased Wire
Bridgeport, Ohio—Indications today pointed to the materialization of the strike threat of 15,000 coal miners in the eastern Ohio field.

Mine officials reported that an insignificant proportion of their workers reported for duty when the mines reopened today. The headquarters of the operators' association in a statement said the extent of the strike would not be determined until later.

Harding Car Near Wreck

Pittsburg, Pa.—Senator Harding's train was sideswiped by a switch engine while leaving the local yards early today. Two Pullmans ahead of Harding's car were tossed, a glancing blow and several windows were shattered. The cars were occupied by members of Harding's staff and correspondents.

The candidate's car was untouched.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Senator Harding got right down among the people here today, as he carried his campaign into the east. He left the train on which he is enroute to Baltimore for a speech tonight, and walked through the streets to the state capitol. Lieutenant Governor Beideman escorted him.

Many pedestrians recognized the candidate and shook hands with him.

The senator met with a warm reception at the capitol. More than 300 state employees formed in line to shake his hand. The senator responding with brief remarks that apparently took with the crowd.

WORLD WAR VETS MARCH IN PARADE

Long Procession of Doughboys
Opens American Legion Convention.

Cleveland—The great parade of delegates to the annual convention of the American legion overshadowed all events here today.

Several thousand doughboys marched in a procession which was more than a mile long. Pretty girls and "saberate floats" made up the decorations.

Next to the parade, the struggle to win the office of national commander was of chief interest.

Candidates were Col. M. J. Foreman, of Illinois; Col. E. W. Calhoun, of Ohio, and Hartford McNider, of Iowa.

Present indications point to Kansas City winning the fight for the national command. San Francisco and New Orleans are also fighting for it.

Admiral Grant, representing England, and Gen. Payolle, representing France, arrived today. A score of other high officers in the American and allied armies and navies reviewed the parade.

The convention was called to order and Rev. Francis Kelly, national chaplain, Albany, New York, delivered the invocation. The crowd stood at attention for 20 seconds in silent tribute to the men who lost their lives while in the service.

Almighty and eternal God, we thank thee for having given us these United States as a nation in which to live, a land to cherish and home for which to fight, and if need be, to die."

Rev. Kelly prayed in part.

"We thank thee for the great principles for which we have offered our lives."

Mayor Fitzmaurice, of Cleveland, greeted the visitors and Col. J. R. McQuinn, commander of the department of Ohio answered for the delegates. Col. Francis Drake, commander of the Kansas post, arrived and was given an enthusiastic welcome.

Leahuel Bolles, national adjutant, reported on the growth of the legion since the last convention.

He estimated the number of posts at 9,200 with branches in every part of the country, in five outlying possessions of the United States and ten foreign countries. Aside from these, 1,250 women's posts have been formed, he said.

Robert H. Tindall, national treasurer, reported that the assets of the legion are now $4,490,000 above liabilities. The national legislative committee reported marked progress on welfare bills.

Commander D'Olier's address summarized the legion's successful fight in congress for the four field optional compensation plan which remains to be passed on by the senate.

D'Olier complimented the legion for its new political and non-sectarian complexion.

"Our great success has been due to the fact that our ideals have proved right and actuated by these ideals there has developed a great organization presenting a united front and extending from the local post and state organizations to national headquarters through which national unity is secured," he said.

"And so your responsibility during the next three days is to keep these ideals pure, interpret them and still further strengthen them and solidify our organization to the end that it may continue to serve the country and our comrades still more unselfishly."

Messages from President Wilson, Marshal Foch, General Pershing, Senator Harding, Governor Cox, Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels were read.

One hundred and twenty-five members of the "Hermes Cheveaux association" arrived from Philadelphia today in box cars labeled "Hermes Cheveaux."

That's the way we travelled in Europe, 40 horses or eight men to the box car and that's the way we will travel to all conventions," Paul Meier said.

GRODNO FALLS TO POLES

City on Versailles Boundary Line
Captured After Desperate Battle.

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—Anti-bolshevik forces were hammering the Reds on three fronts today, according to official communiques received here in what appeared to be a last combined drive before winter halts operations.

Polish troops occupied Grodno, an important fortress on the Polish boundary line, as established by the Versailles peace conference, a Warsaw communique announced.

General Wrangel's communique regarding operations in southern Russia said his forces had taken Alexandrovsk, defeated soviet troops at Ivanovsk and were approaching Berdiansk.

General Makhno, opposing the bolsheviks in the region of the Don basin reported his troops had taken Ekaterinoslav, Poltava, Kharkoff and portions of the basin.

A junction with Wrangel's forces was said to be in prospect.

A wireless from Moscow said General Petlura, leader of the Ukrainian forces, and General Wrangel had agreed on a combined offensive against bolshevik troops in that region.

Lithuanian authorities were reported worried over the concentration of Polish forces at Radium, 5 miles south of Vilna. The Polish communique said the Lithuanian line had been broken near Merez.

Reds Lose Heavily

Warsaw.—Grodno, the fortress city on the river Niemen, has been captured by the Polish army, it was officially announced today by the general staff.

Heavy fighting preceded the city's fall, the bolsheviks resisting desperately. The Reds were still battling fiercely in the vicinity of Grodno when the last advice was received here from the scene of action.

The Polish communique, referring to actions Saturday, announced important gains against the bolshevik forces along the entire front. Soviet reinforcements refused to strengthen the enemy which fell back southeast of Grodno, leaving seven hundred prisoners and a number of machine guns in Polish hands.

The communique reported Polish troops had forced the Dnieper-Bug canal and taken Kartuska, Berezna and Rozany.

CHICAGO RETAIL PRICES FALL SOON

Head of Retail Grocers' Association
Avers Price Drop
Is Coming.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—A general reduction in retail food costs forecast by Sol Westfield, president of the Retail Grocers' association, was expected here this week.

Westfield declared all food prices, with the exception of eggs and butter, were scheduled for continual declines due, he said, to the refusal of banks to loan money, thus forcing producers to unload surplus.

The reduction, according to Westfield, has begun.

Butter and eggs will remain where they are, he said, because of the high cost of production. Lower prices in these commodities were predicted for next spring.

Seven lake steamers, chartered by the city of Chicago, were expected to reach Michigan ports today where they will take on loads of fruit to be disposed of at public markets here as part of Mayor William Hale Thompson's plan to cut living costs.

An average reduction of 25 per cent in the price of timber was announced by L. E. Furness, managing director of the American Wholesale Lumber Dealers' association. The biggest cut was in hard wood where the reduction amounted to 33 per cent. The reductions ranged from 25 to 35 per cent below last February's prices.

NO EULOGIES AT FUNERAL OF NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE

New York.—Following the wishes of Jacob H. Schiff, millionaire, who died here Saturday night, no eulogies will be spoken during funeral services tomorrow.

The services will be conducted by Dr. Jacob Silverman at the Temple Emmanuel, and burial will be at Cypress Hills, Long Island.

Although Schiff's residence was in one of the richest sections of New York, the poverty stricken east side contained some of his most sincere mourners.

One of the partners of Kuhn, Loeb and company, of which Schiff was the head, said his estate exceeds $250,000,000.

Cablegrams, telegrams and letters of condolence reached the family today. Among others was a message from President Wilson.

105,000 MEN IN ARMY 'COLLEGE'

University in Khaki Is Turning Out Splendidly Equipped Business Men.

(By Hal M. Cochran)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

Camp Grant, Ill.—The United States Army has become the maker of business men, as well as the trainer of fighting men.

Under Uncle Sam's huge peace-time plan, enlisted soldiers may graduate from the University in Khaki—the largest university in the world—into business positions.

There are now 105,000 students taking 105 courses.

These are picked from anywhere in the universe, may drop into the American army, with little or no education, and step out of it as a well-educated and equipped business man.

Under the plan, a soldier may be a typewriter operator, musician, cook, stenographer, saddler, teamster, carpenter, painter, or any one of many other tradesmen.

This has become a possibility since the Research and Development Service has been added to the regular military training in the American army camps.

Nine Corps Areas

In connection with the government's plan of building men, the country has been divided into nine corps areas which are spread all over the land. Each corps area will be the permanent home of an army corps and the educational center for the vocational training of American youth.

Camp Grant, in the Sixth Corps area, has been the center in the Development and Research work, with Professor G. W. Hoke, formerly connected with the University of Chicago and with the vocational training during the war, in general charge of education.

The new schools at Camp Grant were started in November, 1919, and ran for a term of six months. So successful was the system that a special school was carried on during July and August, with 700 pupils at class, for the benefit of teachers from every post and camp in the United States.

Learning by Doing

In the vocational training 32 trades are taught. The new system—men learning by doing.

"When America got into the World War," as Professor Hoke explains, "it was soon discovered that there was a shortage of developed manpower. The army decided on a system of educational training as well as military training. Three ideas were made the backbone of the new work:

"Make the time spent in the army attractive and interesting.

"Open up lines to business life.

"Send a man out of the army so that he'd be able to go back to civil life as a higher level."

"In a nutshell, the idea was to civilize the army—bring it in closer touch with the general life."

Teaching Greenhorns

"The great plan meant that grown men must be taught to become skilled in their choice of industrial work, and that they must be taught to meet their social responsibilities as well as their individual responsibilities, in the business world."

"Hence, in place of the old military training, the research and development work gives soldiers six hours of education and the balance of the working day at military training."

"The soldiers elect their own branches of education—none are compulsory."

WOMAN COMMISSIONER URGES MORE LADY COPS

Washington.—Appointment of more police women was one of the planks in a platform on which Miss Mabel Boardman, former Red Cross head, took office here today as one of three commissioners appointed by President Wilson to conduct the governmental affairs of Washington and of the District of Columbia.

(By James Henley)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

New York.—It isn't very uncommon for a fight between two boys to involve their fathers in a squabble. More unusual is it for the quarrels of fathers to descend to their sons, but a striking example of this has just developed in New York.

In one corner there is Kermit Roosevelt, son of a fighting father. In the other there is W. Averell Harriman, son of E. H. Harriman, who, in his day, had a reputation for dealing punishing body blows.

The two young men are at it hammer and tongs, but it seems likely the quarrel will be settled not by fistuffs but by long and tedious litigation. Roosevelt, secretary of the Kerr Steamship Co., charges that the "old high-handedness of the Hun" is visible in the pact between the Harriman interests and the Hamburg-American Line. Harriman has retorted that an agreement provides every legitimate protection for American interests.

Fireworks Missing

But the quarrel between the two striplings still lacks the fireworks that characterized the spectacular clash between their fathers when the late Colonel Roosevelt was president and Harriman was the nation's leading railroad magnate. It was on that occasion that the former coined one of his best-known phrases. Referring to charges made by Harriman, he declared:

"Any such statement is a deliberate and willful untruth—by rights it should be characterized by an even shorter and more ugly word."

The dispute between the two concerned some $200,000 which Harriman claimed he had raised (contributing $50,000 of it himself) to aid the Republican campaign in New York state in 1904, when Roosevelt was opposed by Alton B. Parker. Harriman said Roosevelt promised at that time to appoint Chauncey M. Depew ambassador to France and later refused to keep it.

Made Ananias Member

Roosevelt immediately elected Harriman to the Ananias Club.

But only $200,000 figured in the dispute between the elder men. Now their sons are at war over $4,000,000. That amount was seized by the government to insure payment of the excess profits tax, after the money had been paid by the Harriman interests to H. F. Kerr and A. E. Clegg for the purchase of their stock in the Kerr Navigation Co.

Roosevelt, who is associated with the latter two, insists that they have no intention of evading any taxes and hints that the Harriman interests informed the government of the transaction in order that the money might be tied up. In that way Roosevelt and his friends would be hindered in buying ships and competing with the Harriman-Hamburg-American combination.

Aiding German Line?

The colonel's son also charges that American money is being used to restore the German line to its former dominance of South American shipping and asserts the Ship and Commerce Corporation, headed by young Harriman, is "only the American agent of the Hamburg-American line." On the other hand, the agreement into which the Harriman interests have entered has been endorsed by the Shipping Board, which says that American interests have been amply protected.

Sprague, Rhode Island, has filed an extraordinary action in the Supreme court here against Wenceslo Borda, her present husband, in which she asks that he be restrained from bringing his 3-year-old son up in the belief that she is his mother.

Asks Order

She asks, also, that a mandatory order be issued, compelling her husband to reveal the name of the child's real mother, and compelling Health Commissioner Copeland to correct the birth certificate of the boy, now on file in the health department of this city. The certificate gives her name as that of the boy's mother. She denies that she has ever had a child by her present husband.

Mrs. Borda, according to her papers, married Mr. Borda in this city on Oct. 25, 1907. At the time of her marriage she was a resident of Narragansett Pier, R. I. The marriage was secret, and its announcement a few days later created a stir in social circles in New York and Newport, where both were well known.

Once U. S. Consul

Wenceslo Borda, whom the widow of Col. Wheaton married, was once United States consul at Porto Rico.

On Nov. 1, 1917, according to Mrs. Borda, Ira L. Hill, of 616 Madison avenue, assisted at the birth of a male child, whose father was her husband.

On Dec. 4, 1917, she alleges, Dr. Hill filed a certificate of birth with the health department, which says that Avie W. Borda was the mother, and Wenceslo Borda the father. The information as to the child's parentage, she alleges, was falsely represented by her husband to Dr. Hill.

SONS OF FIGHTING DADS ARE SCRAPPING

Kermit Roosevelt and W. A. Harriman Principals in Court Battle.

(By James Henley)
(Special to Post-Crescent)

New York.—It isn't very uncommon for a fight between two boys to involve their fathers in a squabble. More unusual is it for the quarrels of fathers to descend to their sons, but a striking example of this has just developed in New York.

In one corner there is Kermit Roosevelt, son of a fighting father. In the other there is W. Averell Harriman, son of E. H. Harriman, who, in his day, had a reputation for dealing punishing body blows.

The two young men are at it hammer and tongs, but it seems likely the quarrel will be settled not by fistuffs but by long and tedious litigation. Roosevelt, secretary of the Kerr Steamship Co., charges that the "old high-handedness of the Hun" is visible in the pact between the Harriman interests and the Hamburg-American Line. Harriman has retorted that an agreement provides every legitimate protection for American interests.

Fireworks Missing

But the quarrel between the two striplings still lacks the fireworks that characterized the spectacular clash between their fathers when the late Colonel Roosevelt was president and Harriman was the nation's leading railroad magnate. It was on that occasion that the former coined one of his best-known phrases. Referring to charges made by Harriman, he declared:

"Any such statement is a deliberate and willful untruth—by rights it should be characterized by an even shorter and more ugly word."

The dispute between the two concerned some $200,000 which Harriman claimed he had raised (contributing $50,000 of it himself) to aid the Republican campaign in New York state in 1904, when Roosevelt was opposed by Alton B. Parker. Harriman said Roosevelt promised at that time to appoint Chauncey M. Depew ambassador to France and later refused to keep it.

Made Ananias Member

Roosevelt immediately elected Harriman to the Ananias Club.

But only $200,000 figured in the dispute between the elder men. Now their sons are at war over $4,000,000. That amount was seized by the government to insure payment of the excess profits tax, after the money had been paid by the Harriman interests to H. F. Kerr and A. E. Clegg for the purchase of their stock in the Kerr Navigation Co.

Roosevelt, who is associated with the latter two, insists that they have no intention of evading any taxes and hints that the Harriman interests informed the government of the transaction in order that the money might be tied up. In that way Roosevelt and his friends would be hindered in buying ships and competing with the Harriman-Hamburg-American combination.

Aiding German Line?

The colonel's son also charges that American money is being used to restore the German line to its former dominance of South American shipping and asserts the Ship and Commerce Corporation, headed by young Harriman, is "only the American agent of the Hamburg-American line." On the other hand, the agreement into which the Harriman interests have entered has been endorsed by the Shipping Board, which says that American interests have been amply protected.

PAY $9,000 FINES FOR BREAKING ELKINS ACT

Madison, Wis.—Violation of the Elkins act cost a railroad and four lumber companies $9,000 in federal court here today.

Those who paid fines were the Soo Line, $5,000, and the Mellen Lumber Company, Mellen, Wis., Medford Lumber Company, Medford, Wis., John S. Owen Lumber Company, Owen, Wis., and the Knesheld Lumber Company, Phillips, Wis., which paid $1,000 each.

LITTLE DECREASE IN SPENDING ORGY

Tax Receipts Indicate That Americans Are Still Spending Freely.

(By Ralph F. Couch)
Washington.—The national orgy of spending that swept over the United States following the armistice, still is pouring money into the pockets of purveyors of amusement at the rate of approximately $400,000,000 a month, according to an estimate today made on war tax receipts of the treasury department.

Although expenditures were curtailed for autos, diamonds, imported cosmetics and the like, the public has increased its purchases of candy, soft drinks and other non-alcoholic beverages, tobacco and theatre and movie tickets.

Seekers of recreation still are indulging in these things at the rate of nearly $5,000,000,000 a year, or enough to pay all expenses of the government for 12 months.

Taxes received by the government during May on the sale of candy, tobacco, soft drinks and admissions totaled $36,618,000.

Tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff seem to be the favorite indulgence of the American people, according to the tax returns.

Taxation admission brought in the next biggest tax income to the government, total collections being $6,523,189. At this rate the annual expenditure for theatre seats would be approximately $734,772,000.

Pure, Rich Blood Will Keep Your Body Vigorous and Healthy

When impurities creep into your blood the first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

Nearly everybody needs a few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, to cleanse out all impurities about twice a year. It is an excellent idea to take this precaution to keep the system in a vigorous condition so as to more easily resist disease to which every one is subject. S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

LAY CORNERSTONE FOR NEW CHURCH

Impressive Services Are Held in Slight Drizzle Sunday Afternoon.

Despite the rain which threatened to break up the ceremonies, nearly every member of Mount Olive English church congregation attended the services in connection with dedication of the cornerstone of the new church at the corner of Oneida and Franklin streets. Part of the exercises were held in a drizzle.

The corner stone was set in position by the Rev. R. E. Ziesemer, rector of the church, following a sermon by the Rev. P. Oehlert of Fond du Lac, and a brief recital of the history of the local church by the Rev. Mr. Ziesemer.

Several documents, including the membership role of the congregation, a Bible and other interesting papers, were sealed in the stone.

TWO CLOTHIERS ATTEND MEETING

Appleton Merchants Hear Problems Discussed at Chicago Convention.

Clothing merchants may stop buying for a while in order to help lower prices, states George A. Schmidt of Matt Schmidt and Son, who with L. E. Sugerman returned Friday from Chicago, where they attended the annual convention of the National Retail Clothiers association.

No resolution along this line was adopted, but Mr. Schmidt states that the sense of the gathering was to take such action.

Costs and profits were discussed in the meetings and it was shown by Prof. Horace E. Secrest, director of the bureau of business research of Northwestern University, that the average profit was 2.3 per cent. His investigations covered a large field, in which he found that the earnings were $7.50 on every $100 worth of business. He stated that that $7.50 of the $100 was paid for merchandise and $22.70 for operating expenses. Methods of mail order houses were discussed by the delegates, and an investigation was started to find out why they do not collect luxury taxes as retail merchants are compelled to do.

IMMIGRATION FLOOD PRESAGES SHARP FIGHT

Washington — Immigrants now flocking to the United States at nearly the pre-war rate of 1,000,000 a year, will be the cause of a long and hard battle in congress this winter, it was indicated today.

President Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor, want more drastic immigration laws.

Employers may fight amendments which curtail the flow of unskilled labor to the United States. At the present rate of immigration, native born labor soon will be undermined in its living standards, organized labor officials said.

In proof of their charge, labor officials pointed to the congestion at Ellis Island where incoming immigrants now are housed at the rate of 3,000 a night.

BELIEVES WIFE OWES HER LIFE TO TANLAC

Mrs. Dall Gained Forty Pounds and Feels Splendid Now. Husband Also Greatly Benefited by Taking Tanlac.

"I firmly believe my wife owes her life to Tanlac and I cannot express the gratitude I feel for her wonderful recovery," said Peter Dall, 1278 54th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

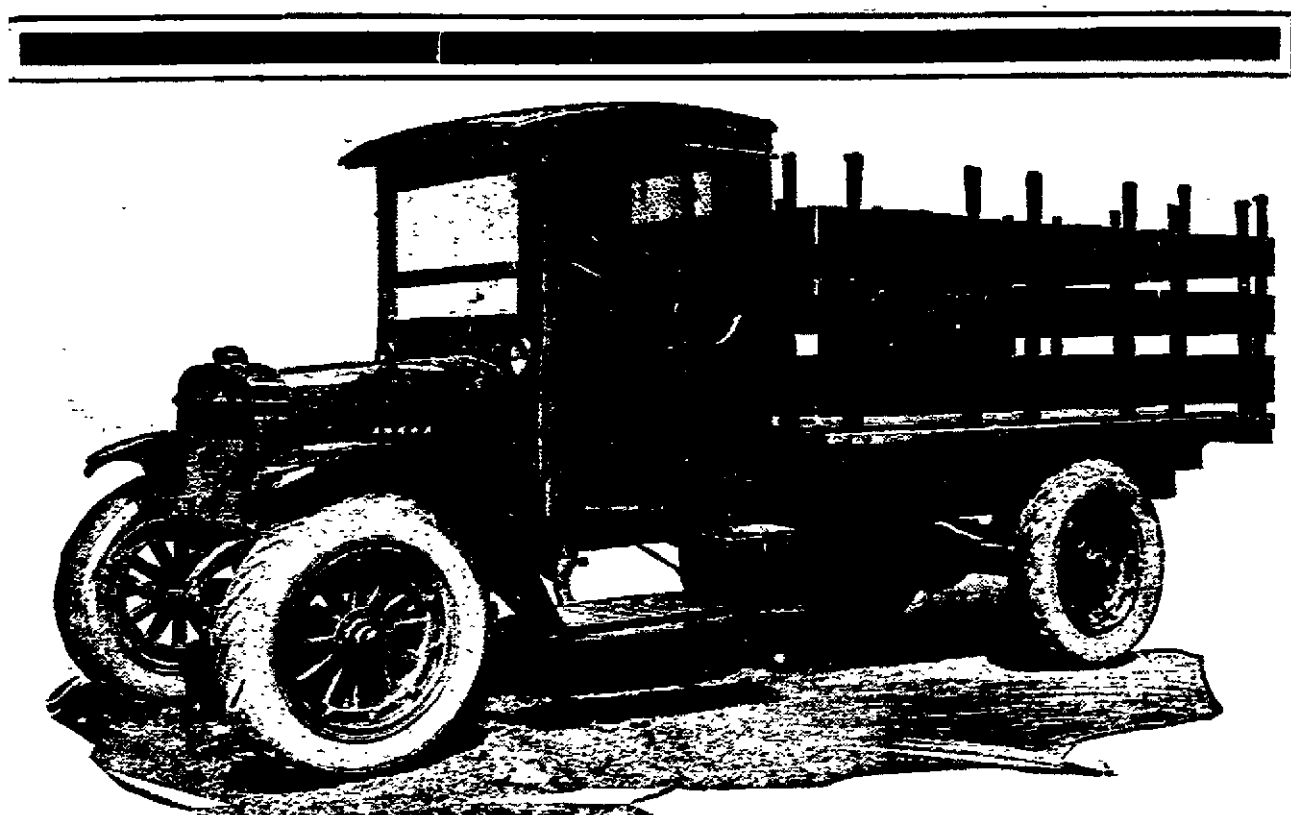

"For two years her stomach was so badly disordered that she could hardly eat anything and what she did eat seemed to do her more harm than good. Her health failed rapidly and she finally became almost a nervous wreck. She had to keep to her bed much of the time and when she was up it was all she could do to get about. She couldn't sleep at night and was as tired in the morning as on going to bed. She kept falling off until she lost fifty or sixty pounds in weight and was low-spirited all the time.

"Soon after she started taking Tanlac we saw a decided improvement. She now has a fine appetite, eats three hearty meals a day and never feels the least sign of indigestion. She has already regained forty pounds of her lost weight and her friends all tell her she isn't like the same person. She sleeps like a child and wakes up in the morning rested and refreshed and can do her housework with ease. I was so delighted with the good Tanlac did my wife that I took it myself and it helped me wonderfully."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt, F. O. Brown, Shiocton; Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek; H. E. Abend, Dale.

THE BOOK OF DEBORAH
Katherine, and Bob Get the Job of Washing the Dishes

I grew more and more sane as I saw Katherine Miller's roadster turn into our drive with my husband at the wheel.

"I picked your poor man up just as he was about to board a street car," purred the tiger lady.

"That rear tire blew up at last, Jane. You know I've had that tire so long I was fond of it! Ought not to have parked the old dear in the hot sun today. It had a stroke!"

Bob was trying to be funny, but his words only proved that he was nervous. I didn't wonder. Even if he had had to walk, he should have been home two hours earlier.

Without commenting upon his explanation, I exclaimed sweetly: "Do stay and dine with us, Katherine. Your family will have had dinner long ago!"

"Come in, Kath! Stay!" said Bob. The manner of his speech hurt me. And so to my dining room table came the woman I was most jealous of. In she came to rave over the delights of a bungalow and a table for two.

"No maid?" she queried.

"One of the new fashions," I explained. "She comes by the hour, but not on Sundays."

The present-day servant problem is an absorbing topic with women like Katherine, who have until this year 1920 been privileged to imitate the lilies of the field.

I furnished her with a chance to chatter: No servants on her brother's big estate in the Blue Hills! Only a laundress two days a week at her sister's seaside villa! And such a clan of babies! And on the Bay farm, where her father spends part of each summer, her relatives had to pick the berries as well as can them, and feed the poultry and care for the milk, and make the butter and wash and iron, bake and cook, just like pioneer women.

Bob chuckled, not over the plight of the women so much as over Katherine's horror of their plight.

"Under the circumstances, Katherine, you'd better learn how to wash dishes," I said demurely after she and Bob had finished their cigarettes. I didn't smoke with them. I didn't refrain to please Bob, only because I would look well by contrast to Katherine.

I buttoned one of my white covers over her dainty dress, and really she didn't look pretty in it! She was warm, too!

"I have no maid tomorrow—Sunday—you know. So Bob and I wash up the dishes Saturday night."

I was about to take up the dish-mop when I had an extra inspiration: "Here, Katherine, take this," I said, thrusting the mop into her hand. "You and Bob do the dishes while I go out and cut some of my freak blue plaid for you."

With that I threw off my apron, snatched up my garden basket, and was gone.

It was breezy in the garden dusk, and it was close in the kitchen in spite of the electric fan.

"They enjoyed their ride," said myself to myself, "but they are not enjoying that dishwashing job one bit! You should worry, Jane Lorimer! They brought this on themselves!"

As I cut my last stalk of Mossoms, I advised myself thus:

"Let them see each other as often as they choose! And do you keep out of the way!"

Release for Women who Suffer

The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ills peculiar to their sex is almost beyond belief—yet there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

These Two Women Tell of Their Experience.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound."—LILLIAN THARP, 24 South 6th Street, Carrollton, Ky.

Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my housework, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own housework without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—MRS. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis.

POLES STUNNED BY RED PEACE TERMS

Bolsheviks Demand Poles Consent to Armistice Within Ten Days.

Adolf Joffe, head of the bolshevik peace mission which is treating with the Poles, electrified a dull session of the peace conference on Friday and lent real interest to the occasion when he presented to the Poles the Russian government's armistice terms, which carried an ultimatum that soviet Russia would inaugurate a winter campaign if an armistice was not arranged within ten days.

It came as a complete surprise, the Polish counter proposals to the soviet terms offered at Minsk being the order of the day. Consequently the Polish delegation was unable to make any response directly to the unexpected terms which Joffe explained were framed at Moscow on Thursday by the executive committee of the government. He said the bolsheviks were not anxious to prolong the war, but were anxious to know immediately whether peace was possible.

Poles At Disadvantage

The bolsheviks are considered to have gained a tactical advantage by the sudden stroke, which precludes procrastination and makes the position of the Polish delegates difficult, as they had expected a deliberate

U. S. HOLDS MUCH GERMAN PROPERTY

$400,000,000 Worth of German Property Held by Alien Property Custodian.

Washington—Approximately $400,000,000 worth of property seized from German and Austrian owners when the U. S. got into the war still is under the trusteeship of Alien Property Custodian Garvan, it was estimated here today.

According to this estimate, something like $300,000,000 worth of property has been returned to its owners under the amendment to the Trading With The Enemy act passed last fall by Congress. Exact details of the transactions will not be available until Garvan makes his annual report to Congress.

Future disposition of the property still held is one of the problems that will confront the Congress which settles the question of the peace treaty. The property still held, which includes hundreds of going concerns manufacturing practically every product from chemicals to steel, now is being sold up profits which further complicate the problem of what disposition to make. These profits now are being invested in Liberty bonds and government securities subject to the direction of the Treasury department.

Approximately 25,000 persons of German and Austrian origin were interned in the property seized by the alien property custodian. A smaller number of Americans are, or were, owners of property seized by Germany when the U. S. entered the war. Provision for return of this American property by Germany is made in the peace treaty. Due to the fact that the U. S. has not ratified the treaty, no returns have yet been made by the Germans.

When France Great Britain and Italy approved the treaty, their governments at once began arrangements to credit Germany with the value of the property held.

MOB THREATENS SLEUTHS WHO SLEW CHICAGO MAN

Valparaiso, Ind.—Railroad Detectives Simmons of Chicago and Schleno of Michigan City today narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of a mob at Chesterton. Quick action on the part of Sheriff Fordney, who brought the men here, prevented a clash.

The trouble started when the inquest opened over the body of John McFarland of Chicago, who was killed Wednesday night by the detectives. An armed mob of several hundred formed and started toward the jail. Fordney took his prisoners through the back door while the mob was entering at the front and sped away in an automobile.

The inquest was concluded here and the detectives were held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter.

WAUKESHA FIRM CUTS PRICE OF ITS PRODUCT

Waukesha, Wis.—The first big reduction in manufactured food products to be announced in the country since the peak of the high cost of living started down, was announced here today by the Jiffy Dessert company, which announced a reduction of approximately 25 per cent in its many food products. The company sent telegrams to thousands of wholesale grocers and jobbers throughout the country announcing the decrease, effective immediately, and that their floor stocks would be protected. This action was taken irrespective of the costs of the foods, according to the announcement.

TOBACCO GROWERS PLAN TO ORGANIZE

Virginia Farmers Rebel Against Low Prices Offered for Product.

Danville, Va.—Tobacco growers of Virginia, spurred to action by the low prices on the tobacco market since the season opened this week, will form a state association of growers on Saturday to be affiliated with similar organizations recently perfected in North Carolina, South Carolina and Kentucky, for the purpose of taking united action to protect their interests.

More than five thousand farmers met here this week and appointed committees to prepare the framework of an organization. One of the purposes will be to find out what ails the market to create a means of financing the crop and see if price fixing tactics have been resorted to, and if so to go to congress with their complaint.

The planters maintain that it has cost them on an average of 35 cents a pound to produce this crop. The average prices on the market when it opened were 15 cents. This has resulted in the growers taking their offerings back to the barns. The market has been closed, but will reopen on Monday. Buyers maintain that the price depression is in keeping with general economic conditions. This year's crop is the largest recorded in recent years.

ASSESSED VALUATION SHOWS HUGE JUMP

Beloit, Wis.—Among the most noticeable increases in property assessments in this city is that placed upon the valuation of the Beloit Water, Gas and Electric company. In 1914 the property was entered upon the tax rolls with a valuation of $796,726. This year the assessment has been raised to $1,557,500. The findings of the Wisconsin tax commission which has been considering the valuation of the Beloit Utilities company, announces a raise in the assessment of over 37 per cent over the figures agreed upon last year. The assessment for 1919 was $1,157,425. The company has made extensive enlargements this year.

OUTAGAMIE COUNTY PIGS ARE TAKEN TO BELOIT

Small pigs were selling at the fair grounds Saturday morning at from $3.50 to $4 each according to size. Several hundred were offered for sale and were quickly taken up by Beloit buyers who were on the grounds as early as seven o'clock with several heavy motor trucks equipped with double decks. As soon as a truck was filled it started for Beloit, where the pigs are sold, some going to Iowa, while the majority will be fed in southern Wisconsin.

DANGER SEEN IN CUBA'S ELECTION

First Trial of Electoral Laws Drafted by U. S. to Prevent Bloodshed.

(By A. L. Bradford)

Washington—The State Department here is awaiting the Presidential elections next November in Cuba with an interest probably second only to the presidential elections in the United States the same month.

While the choosing of an American President will decide the future foreign policy of the United States, the elections in Cuba will determine whether the Cuban electoral laws as drafted by the United States Government are to prevent abuses and bloodshed in the selection of a Chief Executive of Cuba.

Although requested to do so by the Liberal Party, the American Government has decided not actually to supervise the election in Cuba. It is stated officially, however, that the fact that "the United States may again be called upon by the Cuban people for a decision regarding the fairness of the election, makes it incumbent upon the Government of the United States to use all available means to observe the conduct of the electoral procedure in Cuba."

As is usual in Latin American politics, intriguing interest of romance and adventure attaches to the impending selection of a President of Cuba.

The two main candidates in the Cuban elections are General Jose Miguel Gomez, of the Liberal Party, and Alfredo Zayas, candidate of the Coalition League, while General Rafael Manillo is trying to establish his candidacy as the selection of the Conservative Party.

The Conservative Party in Cuba, on August 27, formed a coalition with followers of Zayas, who was the candidate of the Liberal Party for the Presidency in 1916. By accepting Zayas, the Conservative Party threw over General Montalvo, who already had been proclaimed as the Conservative candidate for President. General Montalvo now claims that he was ousted from the candidacy through fraud and intrigue and that he still considers himself the Conservative candidate. He has taken his case before the Central Elections Board and says that if necessary he will bring it before the Supreme Court of Cuba.

This complicated political situation is made more bizarre by the following "line-up": President Menocal is supporting the candidacy of Zayas; in the election of 1916, Zayas as the Liberal candidate opposed the present Cuban Executive; the present Liberal candidate, General Gomez, led the armed revolution against President Menocal after the 1916 election in support of the candidacy of Zayas; General Gomez is now opposing Zayas, at present the candidate of the Coalition League.

The United States government is earnestly solicitous that there be no repetition after the impending election of the revolution following the election of 1916.

The Cuban election laws drafted by Major General Enoch H. Crowder, Judge Advocate General of the United States Army, and who mobilized America's great draft army in the World War, were brought into use in the elections of 1912 and 1916. In March of last year, at the invitation of the Cuban Government, General Crowder again went to Cuba to make a final draft of the electoral law, with a view of preventing a recurrence of certain abuses which had been practiced in the previous elections. This work was completed and the completed electoral laws enacted by the Cuban Congress in August, 1919. The November election of 1920.

CLERK, SHORT IN ACCOUNTS, FAKES BANK ROBBERY TALE

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Short $30,000 in his accounts, Melvin Ringold, 19 year old cashier, staged a fake hold-up at the Kent State bank here today.

Two hours after the "hold-up" Ringold broke down and confessed, according to police, that he faked the story in order to cover his shortages. Ringold was the first person to enter the bank today. Shortly after unlocking the door, he yelled for police. He said a man had followed him in and escaped with $10,000. Passersby told police they had seen no one leaving the bank. The police subjected Ringold to a severe cross-examination and finally obtained his confession.

7 LIVES LOST IN ITALIAN REVOLT

Very Little Change in Industrial Situation—More Seizures Reported.

(By Camille Cianfrani)

Rome—Seven lives have been lost in the preliminary stages of Italy's industrial experiment, according to a dispatch from Turin today.

Blood was spilled in clashes between coal miners and "red guards," the latter supporting workmen in their occupation of seized factories. Four police and three "reds" were killed.

The industrial situation throughout Italy was unchanaged today except in minor details. Workmen said their refusal to vacate the plants was due to failure of their leaders and Premier Giolitti to arrange payment for work done in the period of occupation.

Additional seizures were reported.

Proof of Murder Charge

OSHKOSH WINNER IN FIRST TITLE GAME

Overalls Down Waukesha, 4 to 1, in Battle for State Championship.

Waukesha.—The Oshkosh Overalls of the Fox River Valley league defeated Waukesha, Shore league champions, here on Sunday in the first of a three game series for the state semi-pro title, by a score of 4 to 1.

Oshkosh took the lead in the opening session and never relinquished the position of pacemaker thereafter. The Overalls put over two markers as a starter and followed this up with two more in the second inning. That ended the scoring as far as Oshkosh was concerned, although Waukesha put over a marker, their only score, in the seventh inning.

Harvey Stock and Stevenson opposed each other on the mound, the former hurler allowing six hits and two runs, Stevenson also had the task of back on Harvey Stock getting two of his team's six safeties.

The game was played in a drizzle, which made the play at times somewhat erratic. Three errors by Dempsey's club, two by Goodman and one by Leopold, aided the overalls in scoring some of their runs.

LAWRENCE WHIPS DEPERE COLLEGE IN STARTER. 48-0

Blue and White Machine Crushes St. Norbert College on Local Field.

LAWRENCE LOOKS STRONG

Hot Day and Lack of Practice Slowed Up Game—Used Many Substitutes.

Overpowered and outweighted, St. Norbert college, De Pere, was defeated in the opening game of the football season by the Lawrence eleven, 48 to 0, at Lawrence field Saturday afternoon. The Catholics tried to replace their lack of beef with speed in a desperate effort to score. It was a practice game that gave both sides some valuable lessons for the coming season.

Lawrence got off to a splendid start in the first quarter by making two touchdowns and two goal kicks in the first seven minutes. They made a third before the quarter was up. Maynard, St. Norbert end, made a run that was spectacular and got well toward goal but the last defense got him and prevented the Catholic's most desperate attempt to score.

A forward pass gave Lawrence a fourth touchdown early in the second quarter. About the middle of the period Coach McChesney withdrew Kubitz, Bond and Johnson, three of his strongest players, and substituted McDonald, Greenough and Roeder. Scores came harder after that, but they nevertheless continued to restrain the routs. Ahlquist was taken out in the first half when his knee was injured and Doering was sent in to take his place as end. St. Norbert also withdrew two men and sent in fresh players.

The third quarter was 15 minutes of hard field play. Starting from St. Norbert goal, Lawrence gained yard by yard on a series of downs, finally dragging the pig skin across the line. No passes were tried and the Catholics had no success in trying to break the defenses and carry away the ball. Brunn, tackle, was taken out and Otto Wheeler, reported to finish the quarter.

Kubitz, Lawrence sturdy half back, was put back in the lineup for the fourth quarter. His fast hard plays immediately started the scoring again. St. Norbert sent back the center, Everson, who had been withdrawn. The Catholics tried several field kicks, but the blue and white broke up every play. Two more touchdowns were scored by Lawrence, one on a forward pass.

Lawrence was hitting the line hard all through the game. The lineup appears to possess the beef, speed and organization to make McChesney's eleven a match for this year's championship contenders. The heat told on the players, but none was exhausted or overcome by it.

Most of the passes attempted by the Catholics were incomplete. Their defenses were weak at times, leaving big holes which Lawrence took advantage of. They lost the ball to Lawrence many times because of inaccurate judgment. Their determination was there, however, and speed might have softened the defeat by a few scores if the team work was there.

The Lawrence lineup was: Smith, center; Hunting and Sorenson, guards; McGinn and Brunn, tackles; Wheeler and Ahlquist, ends; Johnson, quarterback; Bond, full back; Basing and Kubitz, half backs.

St. Norbert's original line up was: Klesch, f. h.; Lomer, f. h.; Schumacher, l. h.; Everson, c.; Koehn and Muller, guards; Maynard and Zielms, ends; Fountain, q. b.

RALLIES IN LAST TWO FRAMES GIVE GAME TO BRANDTS

Appleton Wins 3 to 1 Game on Kaukauna Diamond Sunday Afternoon.

GO HITLESS SEVEN INNINGS

Schmidt's Support Saves Him From Massacre in Listless Ball Game.

Rallies in the eighth and ninth innings, after they had gone hitless for seven frames, gave the Brandts a 3 to 1 victory over Kaukauna in the last league game of the season at Kaukauna Sunday afternoon. Appleton hit "Smoky" Schmidt to all corners of the lot for seven innings but always a fielder was ready to pick the ball out of the air. Sterling catches by Kaukauna's splendid outfield saved his hide several times.

Schultz was touched for only four hits and would have blanked the enemy except for two errors in the third inning which resulted in Kaukauna's only tally. He was in several bad holes but was able to get out by tightening up and getting strong support.

The game was marred by poor umpiring, both teams protesting frequently. Appleton got its hits in the last two innings when hits meant runs. In the eighth frame Priebe lead off with a two base whack to center field and scored when Fahlstrom wheeled the ball into the right garden for a single. Fahlstrom went to second on the throw. Prange laid down a bunt to the pitcher, sending Fahlstrom to third. Schmidt's throw to first pulled Stein off the bag and Fahlstrom, advised that the ball had got away from the baseman, rounded third for home but stopped halfway down the line when he saw Stein poised to cut him off. He headed back for third but was caught out. Schultz lifted a long fly to center which Fahlstrom picked off his shoestrings with one hand after a long run. It was one of the prettiest plays of the year and saved one, and probably two runs as the ball would have rolled to the fence. Prange was out trying to steal second.

Starts With Double
With the score tied at the start of the ninth inning, Spies landed on the ball for two bases but was caught on third when Bayer's bunt rolled into the pitcher's hand. Bayer getting a life on the play, O'Connor followed with a rap to right field which rolled away from Minkbeige. Bayer crossing the plate before the pellet could be returned to the plate, and O'Connor hiking to second. Sylvester followed with another knock to right, O'Connor stopping at third. Murr—lifted a long fly to center field. O'Connor scoring after the ball was caught. Priebe soaked the ball to Schmidt who threw wide to first base. Sylvester going to third. Fahlstrom lifted a fly back of shortstop which McDonald speared, ending the inning.

Schmidt started off like wild fire, setting down the Brandts in order as they came up for the first inning. Schultz got into a hole right off the reel when Johnson beat out a bunt along the third base line. He went to second while McDonald was thrown out at first. The next two men were easy outs.

Errors Result in Runs

Both sides were easy in the second inning but the third saw the first score of the game. Feldhausen, last man on the Kaukauna batting list and a weak hitter, lifted the ball to deep right field. Murphy misjudged the ball to start with and then ran back under it. The pellet fell into his paws but bounded out and rolled to the fence. Feldhausen going all the way to third on the play. Johnson soaked the first ball pitched to Schultz who waited until he was sure Feldhausen would try to score when he tossed it to O'Connor in plenty of time to catch the man, but O'Connor dropped it and Feldhausen got over the pan. Johnson going to second, McDonald grounded out, sending Johnson to third. Minkbeige stopped the ball with his head after two strikes were called and was given a base. Stein, reputed to be a heavy hitter, fanned for the third out.

The fourth inning also looked stormy for the Brandts but the clouds were driven away by a double play. Wittig singled through Spies for a starter. Schmidt tried to bunt but popped up to Sylvester who caught Wittig off the bag when the latter dashed back to avoid a double play on the pop-up. Kocher then struck out. Murphy was the first Appleton man to get on the bags, getting a pass in the fifth frame after one was out. He reached second when Kocher let Fahlstrom's grounder get away from him.

Kaukauna got a hit in the sixth frame after two were out but it didn't effect the scoring.

Things looked squally in Kaukauna's half of the seventh. Schmidt opened with a fly to Priebe and Kocher followed with a three base crash to the same garden. Stegeman cracked the first ball pitched to Spies who threw out Kocher trying to score. Feldhausen grounded to Prange for the third out.

HIGH GRIDDERS WIN FIRST GAME

Kaukauna Is Defeated in Easy Fashion by 20 to 0 Score Saturday.

Appleton high school pried the lid off its 1920 football season by walloping Kaukauna high school on Saturday afternoon, 20 to 0. Kaukauna never had a chance against Vincent's men, failing even to threaten the goal.

Kaukauna's front line is made up largely of big, experienced men but it could do nothing with Vincent's new forwards. There was no comparison of backfield. Appleton's representatives outshining the Electric city men like the sun outshines the stars.

Jacobson, at quarter, Roach and Courtney in the halfback positions and Briese at fullback, plowed thru the Kaukauna line at will, making many big gains.

The first marker came in the first quarter when Briese went over for a touchdown after a line plunge. The attempt to kick got was a failure.

Two more touchdowns and two goal kicks were added in the second quarter. Briese made the first count, when he intercepted a Kaukauna forward pass and ran 35 yards. The second came as a result of a pass from Jacobson to Roach who dodged the entire Kaukauna team in a forty yard run.

Next Sunday Appleton will stack up against Wausau on Lawrence field.
